Traditional Ayurveda Health Care

The formula, that apimanu Lipotrope® ayurveda - Herbal Fat Burner works with, is no secret and since 3.000 years used in the ayurvedic medicine. Lipotropics are substances, which hinder abnormal accumulation of fat in the liver. They also improve the metabolism and support the liver and its functions. The four lipotropics are methionin, cholin, inosit and betain. Lipotropics raise the amount of lecithins in the liver and help stopping cholesterol from storing up in the blood vessels. They hinder the accumulation of fat in the liver and detoxicate amines as byproducts of the protein metabolism in the human body.
